

HOW MANY WILL BE SAVED?

LUKE 13:22-30

I. What Does The Bible Say?

Part 1: Only a _____. (Luke 13:22-27)

Part 2: The few turns out to be _____. (Luke 13:28-30)

"Some narrow-minded bigots think that heaven will be a very small place, where there will be a very few people, who went to their chapel or their church. I confess, I have no wish for a very small heaven, and love to read in the Scriptures that there are many mansions in my Father's house. How often do I hear people say, 'Ah! Strait is the gate and narrow is the way, and few there be that find it. There will be very few in heaven; there will be most lost.' My friend, I differ from you. Do you think that Christ will let the devil beat Him? That He will let the devil have more people in hell than there will be in heaven? No! it is impossible. For then Satan would laugh at Christ. There will be more in heaven than there are among the lost. God says, that 'there will be a multitude that no man can number who will be saved' but He never says that there will be a number that no man can number that will be lost. There will be a host beyond all count who will get into heaven."

– Charles Spurgeon

II. What Does This Mean For Us Today?

1. Because only God knows who is saved, we should be careful about _____.

2. Because God's heart is big, no one is truly a _____.

3. Because God cannot be fooled, we must not _____.

4. Because God wants people from every corner of the earth, we must go to _____.

5. Because God has said that many will be saved, we ought to pray that _____.
